School News

Part of our professional development each year is to complete a book study as a staff, learning more on a topic that will make us more effective with our students. The book we are studying this year is entitled, "The Growth Mindset Coach". The book challenges us all to turn from a "Fixed Mindset" and work toward a "Growth Mindset" in all we encounter. It is the belief that people have limitless potential to learn and grow! We have displayed an image of a brain in the hallway and all classes participated in learning what each part of the brain allows us to do. For example, students have written: "The cerebellum helps me when I play basketball and volleyball, teaching me how to dribble the basketball or bump the volleyball over the net." or, "I use my cerebrum doing my algebra homework because I have to problem solve."

This has been a very good exercise for the staff, but also of course, it has translated well to the children and their learning. One child wrote her teacher a note and left it on her desk one day recently. It read:

Dear Mrs. Kulikowski,

Thank you for teaching us about science, social studies and religion. I really appreciate that, and do you know what? You make my brain grow Mrs. Kulikowski!

Love, Melat

As you can see our brains grow, but also our hearts with love for each other!

A Blessed New Year to All!

Reflections

Word of Life

"Your own quiet, patient presence can provide important support as your loved one prepares emotionally and spiritually for his or her passing."

—USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities,
Caring for Loved Ones at Life's End

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer: Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God's people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people.

Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the Week

Families face many challenges. All of the demands of work, school, and society can easily put a strain on even the best intentioned of families. Hurt, anger, and bitterness can grow in our families especially when conflicts are not properly resolved or relationships nurtured. Human beings require time, patience, love, and nurturing. We need to take time to celebrate the gift of family and not allow other demands to rob us of the time we need to spend together. Life is short. The Holy Family stands before us today showing us that love, commitment, and perseverance can see us through any difficulty or challenge life can bring. May we learn from their example!

The Road to Discipleship

"God loves the world so much—that is, you and me. He doesn't love riches or greatness, He didn't come to dwell in a palace. No, when he came into the world He became so very small—He became a child, born to a virgin, placed in a manger. Mary did not expect Him to be born in a humble way. This seems so strange that we must stop and ask ourselves why He did this. Jesus could have had wealth; instead, he chose poverty. I think poverty must be seen as beautiful in heaven if Jesus would choose to become so small, so poor.

To understand the poor, we must know what poverty is and why Jesus made Himself poor. If we understand our poverty, our smallness, our weakness, our littleness, then we will be able to serve the poor and give Christ to the poor."

—Thirsting for God; Daily Meditations, Mother Teresa,
Edited by Angelo D. Scolozzai (page 197)

Gospel Meditation

The Holy Family

“When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions of the law of the Lord, they returned ... to their own town of Nazareth.” Mary and Joseph were faithful Jews who followed the norms of their religion. Today’s Gospel describes the event we call “The Presentation.” Jesus’ parents, like every Jewish family, presented their infant son to the Lord in a formal ceremony at the temple in Jerusalem. Having done what their religious rites required (and having heard the prophetic words of Simeon and Anna), Mary and Joseph returned home. It was back in their native region of Galilee, amidst the daily routine of domestic life, that Jesus “grew and became strong, filled with wisdom.”

As Christians, we too consecrate our children to the Lord when we have them baptized in the Church. Seeing our children receive this sacrament of initiation is always a moment of great joy and hope as we anticipate the life that lies ahead for them, both on earth and in eternity. But the baptism of a baby is only the beginning of this journey towards heaven. In truth, the little daily details, the simple living of family life in our own home paves the way for our children to reach their eternal home.

And so it was with the Holy Family. Jesus’ childhood, his formation and development took place not primarily amidst the public drama of the temple, but in the quiet privacy of his home. How important this home was, where his parents raised him in their faith and helped him live in such a way that “the favor of God was upon him.” May we too, in our homes and our families, remember that although our mission may be lived out in very small moments, taken together they have an eternal significance.

JANUARY 18-26
9DAYS FOR LIFE
PRAYER • PENANCE • PILGRIMAGE

How do we live out the message of Christmas in the New Year, rather than pack it away with the ornaments?

Each year the Octave Day of Christmas falls on the first day of the New Year, on which we also celebrate the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God.

Her open heart and courageous “yes” to God show us how to live year-round—with hearts open to the Lord, following where He leads. We are called to place our trust in Him, to enter compassionately into the suffering of others, and to love one another as Christ loves us. Like Our Blessed Mother welcomed Jesus, we are called to cherish and protect the gift of human life, at every stage and in every circumstance.

One way to live out the message of Christmas and follow Our Lady’s example is to join 9 Days for Life, a digital pilgrimage of prayer and charitable action.

The U.S. Catholic bishops invite you to join thousands of Catholics nationwide from Thursday, January 18 – Friday, January 26.
