Eucharistic Adoration

“Blessed are they who dwell in your house, forever singing your praise”

(from Psalm 84)

The adoration chapel is where adorers come to pray and praise Jesus for all he has done for them. Adorers often say their adoration hour is the best hour of their week. Our chapel is available Monday through Friday, 7:00 am until 10:00 pm and all are welcome to come and praise our Lord. It is a beautiful, peaceful place to spend time with Jesus.

In order to continue to have our chapel open each day, we are looking for adorers for many hours but especially need volunteers for Thursdays at noon, and partner adorers for Mondays at 11:00 am, Tuesdays at 8:00 pm and Wednesdays at 9:00 am and 4:00 pm. We are also looking for additional substitute adorers to fill in for daytime and evening hours as needed. If you would be available to cover an hour, please call Sandy at 763-789-3246 or Fran at 763-788-0924.

Note: Adorers if you have vacation plans and will not be attending your adoration hour, please find a substitute or call your hourly coordinator so they can help find a substitute. Please remember we cannot leave the Blessed Sacrament unattended.

School News

Congratulations Katherine Wall!

We were blessed to have our teacher of preschool – grade 4 students attend a Sacred Music Colloquium this June. Katherine Wall teaches both middle school mathematics and elementary music. This fabulous opportunity was made possible by a grant from the Catholic Community Foundation. Here is information about the conference that was featured in The Catholic Spirit:

The Sacred Music Colloquium is the annual conference of the Church Music Association of America, which promotes the use of Gregorian chant, polyphony and other traditional sacred music in the liturgy, as well as new compositions that advance the traditional styles. Held for the first time in St. Paul, the June 19-24 event has drawn more than 200 sacred music professionals, academics, vocalists and musicians from around North America as well as Africa, Australia and Europe for workshops, rehearsals, performances and liturgies. During the conference, attendees participate in a chant choir and polyphony choir and sing for the colloquium’s Masses and other liturgies. According to the CMAA, the colloquium is “the largest and most in-depth teaching conference and retreat on sacred music in the world.”

Congratulations to Katherine for being selected for this. We know we are blessed to have her teach in our school!

IC Student Selected as Jamboree Princess

One of our wonderful third grade students was selected as a princess in the Columbia Heights Jamboree. She and her Mom were so excited to share the news with me and that they are most excited to be a representative of Immaculate Conception School! Please share the news about our school with family, friends and neighbors!

Reflections

Word of Life

“The challenge is to make the Church’s ‘yes’ to Life concrete and effective. The struggle will be long, and it needs each one of you. Place your intelligence, your talents, your enthusiasm, your compassion and your fortitude at the service of life!”

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: July 22 is the feast of Mary Magdalene. Who was she and is it true that she was a prostitute who followed Jesus around in his ministry?

Answer: Recent biblical scholarship has been trying for a long time to correct Mary Magdalene’s misconstrued reputation as a prostitute. Biblical information reveals her as one of the most important disciples of Jesus, following and financially supporting him during his ministry. She is also a faithful witness both to the Crucifixion and the first to see the risen Jesus.

Her reputation as a prostitute arose from the misunderstandings of certain texts in Luke. Luke 8:2 reports Mary as being a follower of Jesus “from whom seven demons had gone out.” This passage follows Luke’s story of the sinful woman, a prostitute, who bathed Jesus’ feet with her tears and dried them with her hair. Since that woman is not named, there came to be an association of that woman with Mary Magdalene, “from whom seven demons had gone out.” Thus Mary became known as a prostitute. The readings and prayers for her feast day make no mention of her reputation as a sinner. Rather, they emphasize and highlight her role as the first witness to the risen Lord, and the first one commissioned by Jesus to tell of the good news to the disciples. Let us continue to be Mary Magdalene to the world.

Live The Liturgy—Inspiration For The Week

We are reminded today that the seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest. What kind of soil do we have? God’s word needs to take root in our lives so that we can remain faithful not only when life is easy but when it gets challenging and difficult. Anxiety, worldly cares and concerns, personal challenges, experiences of loss and death, and even fear and disappointment can prevent us from trusting God’s promise. We can even find ourselves doubting God’s fidelity and lose touch with his presence. Our soil can easily become rocky, hard, and unyielding. Open your eyes and ears today and let all that is around you lead you to God’s presence. Then, do all in your power to cultivate and nurture a life that is eager to receive him and fertile for growing the seeds of God’s kingdom.

Gospel Meditation

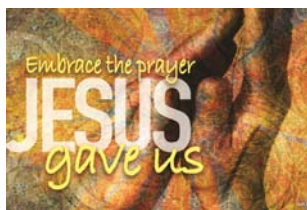

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.” In the parable of the sower that Jesus tells in today’s Gospel, the ideal is to be “the seed sown on rich soil” that yields an abundant harvest. As Jesus explains, this means we should strive to be “the one who hears the word and understands it.”

So how do we place ourselves in this category? How do we assure that we will hear God’s voice (i.e., the word) and actually understand what he’s saying to us? The answer comes in the parable itself. Jesus explains what we need to avoid in order to make sure our seed bears fruit. First, we must beware of “the evil one” who comes and steals away the seed of God’s word. Faithfully praying the Lord’s Prayer, with its request to “deliver us from evil,” is a good starting point here. Placing ourselves under God’s protection every day is like taking up a shield against the forces that would seek to derail us.

Secondly, we must be committed enough to God’s word that “tribulation or persecution” do not uproot us or make our faith wither and die. Here, too, sincerely praying the petition in the Lord’s Prayer—“Thy will be done”—can prepare us to accept whatever comes our way without waffling or wavering.

Finally, we must be careful that “worldly anxiety and the lure of riches” do not “choke” us. Again, we turn to the Lord’s Prayer and find an antidote built in: “Give us this day our daily bread.”

We pray not for a new car or a winning lottery ticket, but for our basic needs.

So let us embrace the prayer Jesus gave us, indeed the words he himself gave us to say, as we seek to truly hear and understand God’s word.

Beyond Our Parish

Vatican Synod on Youth/Young Adults

Pope Francis is calling a general assembly (synod) of the bishops on the theme, “Youth, Faith, and Vocational Discernment” in October 2018. The Church wishes to listen to the voices of young people, their sensitivities, their faith, even their doubts and criticisms.

A series of Listening Sessions are being held throughout our Archdiocese. The next session is Wednesday, July 19, 6:30 pm at O’Gara’s, Saint Paul (part of the Theology on Tap summer series). In addition, young adults ages 16-30 are encouraged to take a brief online survey. For many more details, please visit www.archspm.org/YoungAdultVoices.
