While everyone was asleep
his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat.

Get Formed!

We are excited to announce that our parish has subscribed to a dynamic new online platform called FORMED. Using your access to the internet, every parishioner now has access to inspiring Catholic movies, videos, audios and books on your computer, smartphone and tablet free of charge. To get started, go to www.FORMED.org and enter the parish code: VKQPF9. Set up a username and a password, and then start exploring! Lately, I have been listening to an audiobook entitled "He Leadeth Me" by Father Walter Ciszek who was captured by a Russian army during World War II and convicted of being a Vatican spy. Ciszek spent 23 agonizing years in Soviet prisons and the labor camps of Siberia. Only through an utter reliance on God's will did he manage to endure the extreme hardship. He tells of the courage he found in prayer—a courage that eased his loneliness, pain and fear.

God Bless You,
Father John Mitchell

Mission Trip Report

On June 24, our group of five from Immaculate Conception Parish, along with six others began our Mission trip to Mandaree and New Town, ND. After a blessing by Fr. John, we began our 10-12 hour trek to the beautiful state of plains, buttes, prairies, farmlands and the green badlands. Inevitably, we encountered the infamous oil rigs which pepper the land and became a constant topic of conversation throughout the week.

St. Anthony of Padua, our host parish, has two sites. We slept in Mandaree and traveled daily for mission to their other church in New Town, a half hour away. Our mission was:

- To put on a Catholic day camp—similar to a Vacation Bible school—for the children of New Town and surrounding areas. Families have come to expect these day camps which provide a great source of evangelization and connection with the Church.
- To plan lessons and activities highlighting “The Fruits of the Spirit” and to teach the children.
- To assist the pastor, Fr. Roger Synek, in planning daily Mass, including teaching songs, reading, and helping the children engage in the liturgy.
- To be available to serve the parish community in whatever way was needed.

We experienced the fruit of these day camps in that a couple of the native missionaries who joined the group were the product of past day camps and they came back to serve!

It was a blessing to see our missionaries appreciate and learn about the native community which welcomed us so generously. We attended and participated in a pow wow, visited an earth lodge village, ate delicious Indian fry bread—and fried bread tacos, of course! This was a wonderful time of making new friends, life-long memories and serving Christ. To Him be the Glory!

Make sure to visit the Photo Gallery our website, ICCSonline.org for pictures of our trip.

Serra Club Field Trip

The North Minneapolis Serra Club sponsors a vocations field trip for our 8th grade students each year in which they visit a convent or the seminary. We invited them to visit our school for a luncheon to conduct their business meeting in late April. At that time, five of our recently graduated students read their vocations essay to the club members. We are grateful to the Serrans for their support of our students and for their commitments to prayer for vocations. Pictured are five of our students with Serran John Lacina and Fr. John Mitchell.

We received a beautiful thank you from the Serra Club:

A huge Serran Thank You for your hospitality in hosting us from the awards to your essay writers. It was wonderful for our members to put faces to the essay stories. I think you have started a new tradition for us to visit schools...but you have set the bar very high with the tasty meal, the school tour and your generous gift of personal time and attention. Again, our sincere thanks!

Judy Makowske, North Mpls Serra President

Another one of the Serra members wrote to the school as well:

Thank you for your wonderful hospitality in hosting a meeting of the North Mpls Serra Club. . . The school is very beautifully decorated with holy and saintly reminders everywhere. May God bless you as you endeavor to enhance and encourage our Catholic schools.

We are blessed with a beautiful school and generous friends who want students to grow in their faith—please come visit!

Eucharistic Adoration

“Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.”

(Matthew 11:25)

Adorers who enter our Eucharistic adoration chapel come face to face with one of the mysteries in this Gospel passage. It is the real presence of Jesus in the Host displayed in the monstrance on the chapel altar. We know Jesus is there waiting for adorers to come and pray and that He listens to our prayers. We are so blessed to have Eucharistic adoration available to our parishioners each day during the week. Everyone is invited to come and experience the blessings and peace received through Eucharistic adoration.

In order to continue to have our chapel open each day, we are looking for adorers for many hours but especially need volunteers for Thursdays at noon, and partner adorers for Mondays at 10:00 am, Tuesdays at 8:00 pm and Wednesdays at 9:00 am and 4:00 pm. We are also looking for additional substitute adorers to fill in for daytime and evening hours as needed. If you would be available to cover an hour, please call Sandy at 763-789-3246 or Fran at 763-788-0924.

Note: Adorers if you have vacation plans and will not be attending your adoration hour, please find a substitute or call your hourly coordinator so they can help find a substitute. Please remember we cannot leave the Blessed Sacrament unattended.

Reflections

Word of Life

“A society will be judged on the basis of how it treats its weakest members; and among the most vulnerable are surely the unborn and the dying.”

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: July 26 is the feast of Joachim and Anna. Who are they and what do we know about them?

Joachim and Anna are the parents of Mary, the mother of Jesus, yet there is absolutely no biblical reference to them whatsoever. So where do we get their names, and what is their story? Their names are found in an apocryphal gospel known as “The Infancy Gospel of James.” Apocryphal, or hidden, gospels consist of accounts of Jesus’ life that were ultimately not accepted as inspired works, and thus were not included in the Bible. However, they sometimes captured the Christian imagination, spilling into the devotional dimension of the community.

James’ infancy gospel begins with the parents of Mary and their desire for a child. In their prayer and petitions to God, they are heard and given the blessings of a child, whom they named Mary. The fact that we celebrate the feast of Joachim and Anna indicates that the bond of family love is important in the Christian life. Long before Grandparents’ Day was established, the church had a feast that honored the presumed grandparents of Jesus. While their names are part of non-inspired apocryphal legends, the Savior’s human ancestry is not. Christ, the incarnate Word, dwelt among us in the flesh in a human family. In honoring the grandparents of Jesus we really proclaim our faith in the Incarnation—God becoming human!

Live The Liturgy—Inspiration For The Week

Today we are presented with the parable of the weeds and the wheat. We struggle with the imperfection that exists in our world. This imperfection shows itself in human sinfulness with its consequences—disease, natural disasters, suffering, and even death. We wonder why God did not simply make everything perfect right from the beginning so that harmony, peace, and tranquility would be the norm. God builds free will into us and into our world so that we can learn to freely love him. Anything less than this would not provide the freedom to choose to acknowledge and develop our relationship with our Creator. For now, the weeds and the wheat must coexist. Our faith teaches us that we live and walk in hope that when the harvest comes only the wheat of God’s love will remain.

Gospel Meditation

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“The weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sows them is the devil.” This is not a pretty picture. Jesus shares a parable in today’s Gospel that reminds us of a truth we would rather forget: evil is real, and the devil is at work. The bountiful harvest of our faith is something that Satan wants to destroy. And he has a host of diabolical tactics to help him carry out his wicked plans. But there is one strategy in particular that we must be on guard against.

As the French poet Charles Baudelaire put it, “The devil’s finest trick is to persuade you that he does not exist.” Sneaky as it may be, this approach is effective! And, unfortunately, the attitude of our modern era is very conducive to buying the lie. Too often we dismiss the idea of the invisible spiritual reality of angels and demons. It doesn’t seem “scientific” enough for us because it can’t be seen or “proven.” But neither can our faith! We believe in a host of invisible realities starting with God himself. We should not be fooled into thinking that the devil is a make-believe cartoon character with red horns and a pitchfork on his shoulder. Alas, no. As the “Catechism of the Catholic Church” reminds us, “Scripture witnesses to the disastrous influence of the one Jesus calls ‘a murderer from the beginning’” (CCC 394) and, as we read in the Bible, “Indeed, the Son of God was revealed to destroy the works of the Devil” (1 Jn 3:8). This is not pretend, and so it must be taken seriously. But so too, the reality of Satan must be situated within the broader context of God’s supreme power. The devil “cannot prevent the building up of God’s reign” (CCC 395). The influence of evil can never defeat the power of our faith, unless we let it do so.

YOU

“When Moses was called to lead the people out of Egypt God told him, “I will be with you.” When Joshua was called to lead Israel into the Promised Land, God said to him “I will be with you.” In each case the person was commissioned to take on a difficult task with many risks and challenges. Often they felt inadequate and ill-prepared. Nevertheless, God challenged them to step outside their comfort zones and rely on him as never before. While they may not have felt ready for the job, they were given the one thing they needed most to carry out their task. The Lord would be with them. We need to hear that message too. How might God be asking you to rely on him more, to trust that the Lord is truly with you in whatever you might face in your life right now?”
