Mission Statement

The Mission of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church is to proclaim and celebrate our Lord Jesus Christ. We fulfill our mission as Christian disciples by intentionally responding to God's call to grow in holiness.

4030 JACKSON STREET NE • COLUMBIA HEIGHTS, MN 55421 • 763-788-9062 • ICCSONLINE.ORG

From the Pastor's Desk

Earlier this month, we sent a 2018 Commitment Form to all registered parishioners to help you write down your commitment to Christian discipleship in the areas of Prayer, Service and Offering. There are extra forms in the narthex and in the display racks if you need one. Please return your commitment form at Mass this weekend (October 28-29) or send it to the parish office by November 13. This month I have asked several parish staff members to describe how their department lives out the call to Christian discipleship. This week we hear from our Faith Formation Department.

To be a disciple is to be a follower and learner of a master. Every program put forth by the Faith Formation department, whether for children or adults, is an opportunity to learn more about our master and Lord, Jesus Christ—to re-encounter or to encounter Him for the first time. From the beginning, baptism parents hear of their responsibility to be the first and foremost educators of the faith—to teach their children about Jesus. By involving the whole family in our youth Faith Formation programs, all are encouraged on the path of becoming lifelong learners. The learning continues through such offerings as Bible studies, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, and Intercessory Prayer Ministry. All of these activities challenge participants to see themselves in relationship with Jesus Christ, the all-Holy One. —Mary Nawrocki, Director of Faith Formation

The Road to Discipleship

Saint Francis: An Instrument of Joy

"To Francis everything in him and around him was a gift from his Father in Heaven. He expected nothing, so he was grateful for everything. Even a piece of earth was cause for rejoicing, and he thanked God always for everything that was. He held everything to his heart with the enthusiasm of a child surprised by some unexpected toy. The air he breathed, the sounds he heard, the sights and smells of all the world entered his grateful soul through senses perfected by gratitude and purity of heart. Nothing was evil, for everything came from God, and evil came only from a heart that chose not to love."

School News

Great News!

Our school achieved its Marathon goal of $25,000! In fact, we have surpassed the goal, earning more than $26,000. Thank you for the many contributions that you, as parishioners, gave to our students as they approached you in the church narthex. Many of you also received requests via mail as you may be a graduate of ICS. However you contribute, we are grateful. Pictured are the students who brought in the most donations to the school. They creatively reach out to relatives, neighbors and friends in person, on the phone and on social media. They are each rewarded with a prize. All the students will receive rewards as well for their hard work in bringing this success to our school.

Thank you to the Marathon Committee, chaired by ICS alum, parent and parishioner, Daniele Chartraw, and the many volunteers who assist us in this very fun day of community building. We continue to grow in our participation with over 273 participants this year—biking, walking, scooting, cooking, serving in a variety of ways!

We are a blessed school and parish community!

Respect Life Month

Respect Life Month reminds us, as a gift from God, every human life is sacred from conception to natural death. The life and dignity of every person must be respected and protected at every stage and in every condition. The right to life is the first and most fundamental principle of human rights that leads Catholics to actively work for a world of greater respect for human life and greater commitment to justice and peace.

Reflections

Word of Life

“The Church affirms the inviolable dignity of every person, regardless of the duration or extent of the person’s incapacity or dependency.”

—USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, Catholic Considerations for Our Earthly Passing, www.goo.gl/MyKAp7

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: Would optional celibacy help the priest shortage?

Answer: This is a hotly debated topic. There are good arguments on both sides, and there is no clear answer that emerges. However, the shortage of clergy in denominations that do allow marriage would seem to indicate that optional celibacy is not the quick answer that some might think. No one solution is perfect. Each one has its flaws and problems that are not easily solved. While optional celibacy would open ordination to some great men who are married, it also brings the problems of family, financial support, marital problems, and issues—good and bad—of childrearing. So it would not seem that optional celibacy is a realistic solution to the shortage of clergy.

With all of the varied challenges and problems facing the Church, it is easy to forget that the Holy Spirit leads us. Openness, dialogue, and education are second to our prayers and petitions to the Holy Spirit to make clear the path the Church should follow. A response that is rooted in a culture of political correctness is almost certainly doomed; a response that is rooted in prayer and in God cannot fail.

Live The Liturgy—Inspiration For The Week

God insists that we treat each other with fairness and love. No compromise is offered here. The great commandment is specific: love God, neighbor, and self. Who is my neighbor? It is not just the person sitting next to me today or the people who live next door. Our neighbor is everyone, especially those most in need: those alien to you or to our country, those who are poor, alone, or abandoned, and even those who are the greatest of sinners. We really struggle with how to live these words. How do we open ourselves to the stranger, the immigrant, those who harm us, those in need, or those with whom we disagree? Pope Francis gives excellent guidance here. We are challenged to stretch our thinking and become more unconditional with others as God is unconditional with us.

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.
This is the greatest and the first commandment.
The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself

MT 22:37-39

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Gospel Meditation

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.” Jesus gives us a simple moral principle in today’s Gospel. He speaks about two kinds of love: love of God and love of neighbor. He tells us that all the other laws and teachings of our faith fall under these two headings. So if we can master these, we will be in good spiritual shape!

First of all, regarding the love of God, Jesus tells us in essence that we must love God completely and entirely, with our whole being—heart, soul, and mind. If we are holding back from a full commitment to God, then we are falling short of this vision. So we would do well to examine ourselves and find those trouble spots where we are hesitant to give God everything. Is there a relationship we hold in our heart that is somehow separating us from God, either by negative association, lingering bitterness, or a kind of idol-worship of the relationship itself? What about our souls? Are we deeply attached to any pastimes, pleasures, or pursuits that cloud our soul from clearly welcoming the presence of God? An examination of our minds is in order as well. How do we direct our thoughts? Do we strive to form our conscience and understanding in the truth, or do we passively allow public opinion or popular consensus to direct our conclusions about the Church, the world, and our own identity?

It follows that the closer we come to loving God with our whole being, the better we will be at loving our neighbors. The more we are filled with God’s love, the more that love radiates out to those around us, and the less we concern ourselves about what we can get out of the deal. So let us truly love God, and all the rest will follow.
