Missionary Speaker This Weekend

Fr. Joseph Ekpo will be visiting our parish this weekend and preaching at all of our Masses as part of our participation in the Missionary Cooperation Plan for the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis which allows us to hear about the Church's ministry and work in other countries. Father Ekpo comes from Nigeria and serves in the Diocese of Ikot Ekpene which is a poor rural diocese serving people who barely survive by subsistence farming in which farmers focus on growing enough food to feed themselves and their families. We will have a second collection at Mass this weekend to help the people of Ikot Ekpene with farming, health care, maternity services, education, rehabilitation of the physically and mentally challenged, housing for the homeless and orphans, training of seminarians, and the general welfare of elderly priests. Thank you.

The Road to Discipleship

Sharing the Light of Christ

“Francis and his brothers could have been killed spreading the Gospel. In bringing near the kingdom of heaven, the brothers were engaging in one of the oldest of dramas in which the battle between darkness and light is played out. It was not so much a battle in which they fought the darkness, as it was the ongoing battle with themselves to keep bearing the light, to keep bringing near the kingdom and not giving up, even when they were rejected. For even in rejection they are bringing near the kingdom. And even if they were martyred for proclaiming these words of Jesus, they were not overcome by darkness; they were yielding to the light.”

—Franciscan Media, February 22, 2018
(from the book Francis and Jesus by Murray Bodo)

School News

One of the joys of working in a school is seeing the leadership potential of children develop over the course of years! An example of this is from our second grade class. The teacher, Mrs. Kulkowski, asked the students to consider if they were president, what would they do. The next day one of the students went above and beyond the assignment and shared her thoughts. She developed her own PowerPoint presentation with the following information:

If I Was President I Would...

Make sure every school has vegetables and only a couple chairs so when you do school work you can exercise, because it is good for you. You would stand at your desk and learn!

I'm proud that I want to make everyone healthy.

Fact: If you jog for 5 minutes it helps keep your heart healthy.

Fact: Standing help to strength your legs.

Fact: Vegetables help you to become strong and are very healthy.

Congratulations to Bella for thinking like a leader. (I still like chairs in the school however.) She is the 4th generation of family that attended Immaculate Conception School. The family is pictured in the photo.

Please consider ICS for your child, grandchild, neighbor.

God Bless,

Jane Bona, Principal

Reflections

Word of Life

“When I voiced my objections to do abortion-related services, I was terminated. It’s against my conscience. I became a nurse to protect lives, not to take lives.” – Sandra Mendoza, L.P.N.

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: Who invented the Stations of the Cross?

Answer: The first Stations of the Cross were walked by Jesus himself on the way to Calvary. Known as the “Via Dolorosa” (“The Way of Suffering”) or the “Via Crucis” (“The Way of the Cross”), it was marked out from the earliest times and was a traditional walk for pilgrims who came to Jerusalem. The early Christians in Jerusalem would walk the same pathway that Jesus walked, pausing for reflection and prayer. Later, when Christians could not travel to the Holy Land, artistic depictions of “The Way of the Cross” were set up in churches, or outside and Christians would walk from station to station, reading the Gospel account of the Passion, or simply praying and reflecting on each event. While the content or place of each station had changed, the intention was to make a mini-pilgrimage and follow—literally—in the footsteps of Jesus.

This devotion became better known in the Middle Ages, and the Franciscans are credited with its spread. Lent is a time when many people make the Stations and some churches present Passion plays or Living Stations. But anyone can pray the Stations at any time. It is a simple and personal reflection on the passion of Jesus and what it means to us.

Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the Week

If we continue to journey through life without genuine self-knowledge, without knowing how our relationships ought to be ordered and what truth is, the path we walk will always be only dimly lit. In fact, when we make the wrong choices or find ourselves forgetting who we are, we can easily find ourselves in darkness. “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.” Jesus is the light that came into the darkness. It is not enough for us to simply believe that Jesus is the Christ but we must live our lives in witness to this truth. The choices we make and the priorities we establish are going to either speak of someone who really does not care, someone who is confused, or someone who is wholeheartedly convinced of God’s love. Which are you?

Gospel Meditation

Fourth Sunday of Lent

“Why is the world the way it is? We all wonder that from time to time. Each successive generation projects rose-hued longing on the past and casts furtive glances at the impending future. We see forces beyond our control in nature and in the newspaper. The world is changing and we’re being pulled out with the tide.

In the face of this confusion, today’s Gospel features one of the most oft-quoted Scripture verses of all time: “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.” But if Christ has come, why is the world so challenging? Why is the world still—to our eyes—being carried off in a proverbial hand basket? Jesus’ response is a deeply personal one. “This is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light.” Patterns arise, habits are formed, and systems become engrained, but each is the result of an interconnected web of human choices.

Where do we stand? Our answers, perhaps, vary from week to week, hour to hour, missed traffic light to spilled coffee to teenage child’s rebellion. The world isn’t perfect because we aren’t perfect. Our parish is flawed because we’re flawed. Our families need work because every one of us needs to be converted. Christianity is a process, not a destination!

This Sunday, Jesus invites us to consider our own lives. Where in our own lives do we prefer darkness to light? What flaws are we trying to hide? Humbly acknowledge those places today. Ask God for the grace to be transformed. Share with your spouse or a friend where you’d like to improve this week. “Whoever loves truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.”

©Liturgical Publications Inc.

“God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ – by grace you have been saved.”

Ephesians 2:4-5
